COST OF THE TRIPS

Seven nights in Jamaica for ten, in a private five-bedroom villa with its own infinity pool, on the island's unspoiled South Coast. This is Treasure Beach, a laid-back fishing village and one of Jamaica's most photographed, best-kept secrets, far from the crowds.

Days move at their own pace here. Swim in the private infinity pool set just above the water, then head out to explore the South Coast on your own terms — a thrilling crocodile safari, the spectacular YS Falls, a tour of the famous Appleton Estate, or a drink at Floyd's Pelican Bar, often called the coolest bar on the planet. Come evening, the whole group gathers back at the villa as your private chef gets to work.

You'll stay at The Art Villa, set within the grounds of the Art Hotel, in five air-conditioned en-suite bedrooms, each with its own breathtaking Caribbean sea view. Your private chef prepares breakfast and dinner daily, housekeeping takes care of the villa each day, and you have full access to the nearby Beach Club and the on-site gym.
