ARCADIA BLUFFS IN MICHIGAN

Arcadia Bluffs was founded in 1999 on the windswept bluffs overlooking Lake Michigan. The Club sits on 265 acres that were once a mix of cherry and apple orchards, as well as densely wooded acreage. The course drops approximately 225 feet from its highest point on #3 tee to the bluff line, then drops an additional 180 feet to the Lake Michigan Shoreline. The course covers 3,100 feet of Lake Michigan frontage. Arcadia Bluffs resembles a seaside links course, with rolling terrain and windswept natural fescues throughout. Players will be reminded of their favorite holes at Lahinch and Ballybunion while enjoying breathtaking views of Lake Michigan from all points on the majestic layout. A Warren Henderson design, Arcadia Bluffs offers players a golfing experience unlike anything in the United States.
