Immerse yourself in coastal charm with a 3-night getaway along the Texas Gulf Coast, featuring an exhilarating dolphin watch tour. From serene beaches to the playful antics of dolphins, this retreat offers a perfect blend of relaxation and adventure. Padre Island is the largest of the Texas barrier islands and the world's longest barrier island. The island is located along Texas's southern coast of the Gulf of Mexico and is noted for its white sandy beaches. One of the most unique activities on South Padre Island is the dolphin watching tour. South Texas is a year-round home to several large pods of dolphin and The Original Dolphin Watch is your ticket to viewing them in all their natural splendor. One of the most memorable activities you will take part in while visiting South Padre is a cruise with The Original Dolphin Watch. Share the thrill of meeting bottle-nose dolphins in the wild and experience the unique bond and kinship they inspire in mankind.

DOLPHIN WATCH AVAILABLE TOURS

South Padre Island: Watch for the Atlantic bottlenose dolphins that thrive along the coast of South Padre Island on a 1.5-hour wildlife boat tour from Sea Ranch Marina. Cruise past the U.S. Coast Guard Station and Boca Chica Beach, with a comfortable seat on a wildlife-watching boat that's equipped with a wildlife-safe viewing net so you can see South Padre sea life up close. Galveston: This Galveston Baywatch Dolphin Tour is a great way to see dolphins on the water in just a few hours. Meet your group and captain at Pier 21 and join the boat you're assigned for this experience. Then, take off on the water to enjoy some time searching for dolphins in their natural habitat. Tour is approximately 45 minutes long.
