SAVANNAH SECRETS FOR FOUR

Step into the heart of Savannah, Georgia, where cobblestone streets, centuries-old oaks draped in Spanish moss, and whispers of the past invite you to explore a city like no other. Your 3-night getaway for four will transport you into the magic of the historic district, with a stay in a private two-bedroom residence that blends old-world elegance with modern comfort.

Choose from one of three spellbinding experiences, each offering a unique way to discover Savannah's rich culture and history:

Embark on a Southern Flavors Walking Tour, winding through the city's hidden alleyways and sampling the soul food that defines Savannah's culinary heritage. Every bite tells a story of the South.

Or dive into Savannah's most captivating tale on the Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil tour, where the city's grand mansions hide secrets in their walls. As you stroll through these storied streets, you'll uncover the mystery and intrigue that has made this literary masterpiece come alive.

If you dare, hop aboard the Ghost Trolley for a night of haunted history. Follow in the footsteps of pirates, outlaws, and spirits that still linger in the city's most infamous haunts. End the evening with a hearty dinner at The Pirate's House, where legends (and ghosts) of the past still gather.
