COST OF THE TRIPS

Sonoma Wine Country with a 4-night stay for 8 guests in a luxury vineyard estate. This California wine country getaway is designed to captivate donors at gala events, blending the rustic charm of a working vineyard with the modern elegance of a boutique retreat. Set on 5.5 acres of picturesque vineyards, fruit trees, and olive groves, this private estate features a solar-heated pool in a serene enclosed space, expansive outdoor living areas, and a regulation-size bocce court. Inside, the estate's chic design offers a welcoming escape with four uniquely styled bedrooms, spacious living areas, and plenty of room for families or groups to unwind. With over 400 wineries nearby, guests can explore world-class wine tasting and enjoy fine dining in Sonoma and Napa Valley. Included in this package are three guided winery tours complete with tastings, lunch service, and transportation, providing a curated and stress-free way to experience the region's finest wines.

A dedicated concierge service handles every detail, from winery tours to local recommendations, ensuring a seamless and unforgettable stay. The estate's central location also offers easy access to the lively Sonoma Plaza, historic sites, and charming countryside.

Unmatched Experiences and Amenities:

- Relax in the solar-heated pool in a tranquil enclosed setting
- Savor alfresco dining and enjoy a game of bocce on the estate grounds
- Discover nearby award-winning wineries, historic landmarks, and markets
- Embark on three guided winery tours with tastings, lunch service, and transportation included
- Benefit from dedicated concierge service for curated trip planning
