Discover Portugal through its flavors, landscapes, and timeless traditions on this 6-night culinary and nature adventure for 2. Begin your journey at the Cooking and Nature Emotional Hotel in Alvados, nestled on the edge of the lush Serras de Aire e Candeeiros Natural Park. Here, you'll unwind in boutique comfort while exploring scenic trails, iconic caves, and peaceful countryside by foot or e-bike. In the evenings, roll up your sleeves for a hands-on cooking class where you'll learn to craft authentic Portuguese dishes using seasonal, locally sourced ingredients—then enjoy the fruits of your labor, tapas-style.

Midway through your adventure, travel south to Hotel da Barrosinha in Alcácer do Sal—an estate that seamlessly blends rustic charm with culinary excellence. Sip your way through a wine tasting of Barrosinha's own vintages, and dive into another immersive cooking class led by local chefs. Your days are filled with sunshine, relaxation, and the soul-soothing flavors of the Alentejo region, while optional day trips to historical towns like Santarém and UNESCO-listed Évora offer glimpses into Portugal's gothic and Roman past.

Itinerary – Portugal Culinary and Nature Adventure

Each morning starts with a fresh, regional breakfast and ends with warm memories of shared meals, vineyard views, and quiet countryside strolls. Whether you're a seasoned foodie or simply a traveler hungry for experience, this trip is a celebration of Portugal's culture, cuisine, and natural beauty—served with heart, authenticity, and a dash of adventure.
