This package is valid for select dates for two years and is subject to availability. It may be transferred to another traveler at no cost, provided it has not yet been booked and confirmed. To ensure the best availability, we recommend booking as early as possible and no later than 60 days before your desired travel dates. Please note that travel plans should allow for an arrival in Athens two days before the cruise departure and a departure one day after the cruise returns. While every effort is made to follow the planned itinerary, excursions and site visits are subject to change due to weather or operational needs. Any food allergies or special requirements should be shared at the time of booking. This experience does not include international or domestic flights, car rentals, fuel, tolls, visa fees, or voluntary tips. Personal expenses such as laundry, beauty salon services, and any meals or services not explicitly mentioned in the trip details are also excluded. Shore excursions, the Mykonos shuttle bus (10€ round trip), and the Santorini cable car are available at an additional cost and are not included in the base package. Local fees to be paid directly on-site include a Climate Resilience Tax of approximately 10 Euro per night at the hotel and a Sustainable Tourism Development Fee of 20 Euro for visits to Santorini and Mykonos, or 5 Euro for all other Greek ports. Finally, while select non-alcoholic drinks are provided during dining hours, all other alcoholic and specialty beverages are available for purchase on-board.

COST OF THE TRIPS

This seven-night trip for two explores the historic heart of Greece and the clear blue waters of the Aegean. It combines a three-night stay in Athens with a four-night cruise to famous spots like Mykonos, Santorini, Rhodes, Patmos, and the ancient ruins of Ephesus, Turkey. It is the perfect mix of famous history and relaxed island life.

Your journey starts with a guided tour of Athens, where you will see the Parthenon and the modern Acropolis Museum. After your time in the city, you will set sail from the Port of Lavrion to explore the Greek Islands and the coast of Turkey. From walking the medieval streets of Rhodes to seeing the famous blue domes of Santorini, each stop brings ancient history to life.

You will stay for three nights at the Titania Hotel (or similar), a high-end property in the center of Athens. For the cruise portion, you will have an Exterior Stateroom on the Celestyal fleet, giving you private views of the sea. All travel between the airport, the hotel, and the cruise port is handled by private car for a smooth, stress-free experience.
