SET DEPARTURE: SARDINIA TOUR

Sardinia is no ordinary island—and this is no ordinary tour. Over eight unforgettable days, you'll delve into one of Italy's most evocative regions, where ancient Nuragic ruins, dazzling coastlines, and hilltop towns converge in a celebration of history, nature, and Sardinian tradition. This immersive, fully guided experience offers travelers a comprehensive view of the island's past and present, from the vibrant streets of Alghero to the untamed beauty of Cala Luna.

Begin your adventure along the exclusive shores of the Costa Smeralda and the island-studded La Maddalena Archipelago, where turquoise waters and stylish villages embody the Mediterranean spirit. Journey inland to explore mysterious prehistoric sites like the Nuraghe Santu Antine and the Basilica of Saccargia, then wander the romantic alleys of Bosa and savor a tasting of Malvasia de Bosa wine, cultivated on the surrounding hillsides for generations.

Experience Sardinia through its senses—tasting traditional cuisine, hearing local folklore, and feeling the thrill of an all-terrain vehicle excursion through the wild Supramonte. Marvel at the Romanesque beauty of the Basilica of Saccargia, stroll through Cagliari's Castello district, and stand among the ruins of ancient Tharros, gazing over the shimmering Sinis Peninsula. Along the way, enjoy accommodations in charming 4-star hotels, full-board dining, expert guides, and two scenic boat excursions.

Whether you're drawn to archaeological intrigue, natural wonders, or authentic Italian culture, this tour reveals Sardinia in all its richness. It's a rare opportunity to go beyond the tourist trail and discover the soul of the island.
