Ready for a trip filled with rich history, culture, and stunning landscapes? Portugal delivers. It's a dream for nature lovers, and thanks to its compact size, travel is easy and affordable. A high-speed train ride from Lisbon to Porto takes under 3 hours. Use your chosen city as home base, then explore Portugal at your own pace.

Into surfing? Portugal's coast is world-renowned, with breaks near Lisbon (Carcavelos and Costa da Caparica) and Porto (Matosinhos).

Prefer hiking? Portugal's a hiking mecca. Mountains here are wild, dramatic, and full of surprises. On the island of Madeira, you can hike up Pico do Arieiro (1,818m)—one of the few places in the world where you can literally walk in the clouds. As you reach the summit, you're surrounded by mist, ridgelines, and otherworldly views.

In Porto—the birthplace of Port wine—wander through the colorful Ribeira district, visit historic wine cellars, and cross the iconic Dom Luís I Bridge. In Lisbon, lose yourself in old neighborhoods, hop a tram, and find beaches or nightlife just minutes away. Craving castles or coastal views? Head south to the Algarve for sweeping cliffs and sun-soaked beaches, or escape to Sintra's fairytale palaces.

Portugal is known for its rich heritage and unbeatable value. Enjoy fresh seafood, world-class wine, and the famous pastéis de nata. The best part? You have full flexibility. Pick your destination, travel anytime over the next 2 years, and design your perfect getaway—from ocean waves to mountaintop views.
