Experience rural France with a 7-night stay for 8 guests in a beautifully restored stone house in the heart of Burgundy. Your week is defined by the peaceful rhythm of French village life, toasted by a welcome case of local sparkling wine and an elite dining experience at a nearby chateau.

Your home for the week is Maison Valois, a charming stone-built village house featuring the classic architectural character of the region. Located within a private gated courtyard on a quiet street, the home has been recently renovated with updated decor. The interior features 4 bedrooms, a spacious living room with a fireplace, and a dining area overlooking open fields and vineyards. Outside, the large private garden offers a quiet spot for al fresco meals with wide-open views across the Burgundian countryside.

The culinary heritage of the region is a central feature of your stay. You will enjoy a tasting menu for 8 guests at a nearby Michelin-starred restaurant set within a historic chateau, located just a 15-minute drive from the house. To welcome you to the village, a case of local Crémant will be waiting at the villa upon your arrival. This celebrated local sparkling wine shares the same traditional methods as its neighbor, Champagne, located just a few miles to the north.

Maison Valois is perfectly positioned for discovery. You are within a short drive of the medieval centers of Dijon and Beaune, as well as the 12th-century Fontenay Abbey. The house serves as a strategic crossroads for wine enthusiasts, situated between the famous wine roads of the Cote de Nuits to the south, the Chablis district to the west, and the Champagne region to the north.
