COST OF THE TRIPS

This coastal Florida getaway provides a tournament-centric retreat for 2 golf enthusiasts in Ponte Vedra Beach. The stay features 2 nights at the luxury Sawgrass Marriott Golf Resort and Spa, complete with daily breakfast. Guests receive a flexible $200 per night resort credit, allowing them to independently tailor their itinerary toward championship golf, dining, or spa services.

The resort grounds sit adjacent to the legendary home of the PGA Tour and the iconic Players Stadium Course. Designed by architect Pete Dye, the Stadium layout relies on brilliant visual deceptions, tight fairway windows, and deep pot bunkers to keep players entirely off balance. This precise target test builds directly into the most dramatic closing sequence in professional golf. Players can test their nerves against the elements at the 17th hole's completely exposed island green before tackling the brutal water hazard guarding the 18th fairway.

Away from the nerve-wracking hazards, the Sawgrass Marriott serves as a sophisticated sanctuary on the northeast Florida coast. The property seamlessly pairs upscale relaxation with premium amenities, featuring a world-class luxury spa pavilion, a modern fitness center, and four pristine swimming pools. Daily resort credits offer seamless flexibility. Guests can apply the funds to offset a premium loop on the adjacent Dye's Valley Course, book a restorative massage, or enjoy dinner and cocktails after a day in the Florida sun.
