COST OF THE TRIPS

Four nights in Porto for six guests, in a three-bedroom apartment right in the city center, with two experiences built around Portuguese wine at its source. All six of you stay under one roof instead of scattered across separate hotel rooms, so everyone wakes up in the same place each morning. One full day belongs to the Douro Valley — a private tour just for your group, with two wineries to visit and tastings at both, lunch at one of them, and a scenic cruise along the river that gives the whole valley its shape, with transportation handled from start to finish. Back in the city, a three-hour private walking tour takes you through Vila Nova de Gaia, the Porto neighbour famous for its cellar and its vibrant atmosphere, with Port wine tastings along the way. The rest of the four nights is yours, and a concierge is on hand to add extra activities to the stay if you want more.

Home base is a three-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment in Porto city center, sleeping all six of you under one roof, with two bedrooms on double beds and one on twin beds. Final cleaning and utilities are covered, so nothing gets tacked on at the end.
