VALENCIA FOODIE ESCAPE

Four nights in Valencia for two, built around the food and wine of one of Spain's most flavorful cities. You'll stay in a stunning apartment close to the Old Town, with restaurants, bars, and shopping right on the doorstep, and spend your days eating and exploring your way through the city.

At the heart of it is a guided tapas tasting tour, with a stop at a local food market and a glass of local wine, beer, or cava at every stop along the way. There's also a paella and sangria meal to enjoy as a lunch or dinner during your stay. To see the city itself, you'll take either a guided Valencia city tour or a Valencia pub crawl, plus your choice of a self-guided walking tour or a hop-on hop-off bus tour of the highlights, including the landmarks that made Valencia famous for its arts and sciences.

When you want a change of pace, several beaches are within reach, and nearby Albufera Park — a wetlands reserve with a lake and walking trails — is well worth the trip.
