Three nights on the Côte d'Azur for two, built around shared superyacht hospitality across the 2027 Monaco Grand Prix weekend, one of the most prestigious and glamorous events in world sport. This is where high-octane racing meets unrivalled glamour, and you'll soak it all up from the deck of a fabulous superyacht in Zone 1.

Across Saturday's practice and Sunday's race day, you'll be aboard a fabulous superyacht moored in Zone 1, sharing the hospitality with other guests. Some of the best chefs on the Côte d'Azur serve a buffet lunch and food throughout, a champagne reception welcomes you aboard, and a complimentary bar of beer, wine, spirits, champagne, and soft drinks runs all day via waitress service. Guest DJs keep the atmosphere electric and onboard screens keep you on top of every lap. The 2027 Monaco Grand Prix is officially scheduled to take place from June 3 to June 6, 2027.

Away from the circuit, your home base is a boutique hotel in the Old Town of Nice, three nights in one of the most charming corners of the French Riviera. You'll reach the yacht by tender from a designated meeting point, and while flights and transfers are not included, private transport, including between Nice and Monaco, can be arranged separately at your cost. Hotel upgrades are available too. It's luxury meeting adrenaline, and it's built to be genuinely unforgettable.
